Questions for thought and discussion

1. How is the good news different from doing things (meditation, self-improvement, trying harder, keeping rules) to gain God's favour?
2. How does understanding that the good news is God's free gift motivate people to love and serve God? What does it do for you?
3. Who needs to hear about the good news from you? Pause now to pray for this person.
4. How can you present the good news so that this person can understand it?
5. Look for examples of sharing the good news in Acts. Here are some references to get you started: Acts 4:1-22; 7:1-60; 17:16-34.
 - a. What can you learn from these examples?
 - b. How was the approach different in the different references?
 - c. How was the response different in the different references?
