Questions for Thought and Discussion

1. The Bible uses many metaphors from our lives to help us understand the relationship God desires to have with us. How does the Biblical portrayal of human sexuality become a metaphor of the relationship God desires to have with his creation.

2. Godly boundaries are designed to benefit people. How do the boundaries surrounding human sexuality benefit us?

3. Four approaches were given toward human sexuality (full acceptance, legalistic, silence and warm and loving). Which of these describes your view of how followers of Jesus should respond?

4. Churches and Community Groups should be supportive and help one another. If you are discussing this in a group, list some ways your group could help one another with this topic.

5. If you would like to talk to someone, send an email to info@aic.org to set up an appointment.
