

The Two Gods in the Bible

Exodus 34:6-7

January 31, 2021

Big Idea: Initial slide to begin the message God is not an angry God, He is deeply loving and compassionate.

1. Why is the God of the OT _____ all the time?
 - a. How did He reveal Himself to Moses?
(_____)
 - a. How did He reveal Himself to Abraham-
(_____)
 - b. How did David see God?
(_____)
2. How did God treat the nations?
_____.
3. The loving-kindness of God needs to be seen in light of the absolute _____.
4. Why is the God of the OT so different from the God of the NT?
 - a. The God of the Old Testament _____
God in the New Testament.
 - b. God does _____.
5. God is not an angry God, He is deeply loving and compassionate.

Discussion Questions

As you begin your discussion time imagine that you are speaking with someone who is profoundly struggling with the idea that the God of the OT is cruel and vindictive - yet they love Jesus. How would you answer their questions? Avoid easy answers and provide scripture to back up your words of advice.

1. "I love Jesus and I understand that He is God, but He can't possibly be the same God that I see in the OT".
2. "I love Jesus and His teachings, but I cannot love the God of the OT. In fact, if they are one in the same, I don't know if I can love Jesus either".
3. "Why is the God of the OT so angry all the time?"
4. "Why is the God of the OT so different from the God of the NT?"