Questions for Thought and Discussion

1. Is there a new work that God is seeking to do in you and through you that you absolutely need the filling and anointing of God to accomplish? What is it that God is seeking to do through you that will only occur when there is sacrifice in your life?
2. Do we waver in our opinions of who God is?
3. Why is that if we waver in our faith that it can be crippling in our walk with God?
4. Do we long to see God do a fresh work through us? Are we fed up with status quo- Will we invite the Holy Spirit to do in and through us what He desires?
