

Dear Church Family,

Last week we had such a joyous and wonderful time celebrating the baptism of 6 members. It was so heartwarming to see the love of Christ experienced in so many people's eyes. Truly grateful for all the people God has used to sow into their lives. Let's continue to praise God and press forward in sharing God's love and making disciples. We are called to God's great mission and it is an Unstoppable and amazing journey.

Speaking of amazing journeys, this Sunday we will be taking a broad stroke perspective of Paul's trials in Acts 23-25. If you've ever felt discouraged or utterly defeated and wondered if it's any use to continue on, you don't want to miss this message.

If you are planning on joining us in person, please take a RAT and remember to scan in with Leave Home Safe app and Vaccine Pass Scheme. Thanks for your cooperation. As always, you are also welcome to join us online.

Take care and God bless!
Pastor Henry
