Mother's Day - A Mother like Naomi

“Having a child is like having your heart walking outside your body.”

-Ruth Beck

Elimelech - “The Lord is my King”

In a crisis, where do you run to?

*Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life?
You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.*

-James 4:14

“Call me Mara.” - Bitter

Naomi - pleasant, gentle, sweet.

What can we learn from Naomi?

1. Don't run to the enemy
2. You can always come home
3. God is always faithful
4. Wait for God's restoration

God is trustworthy

God is sovereign

He's in control

He is faithful

Let us give thanks for the mothers in our life.
